

Kennebec Woodland Days

October 2012

Curtis Forestry Days –Organized by the Kennebec Land Trust. Students visit the Curtis Homestead Conservation Area and learn about forestry, wildlife management, sustainable harvesting and timber processing. October 24 & 26, Leeds. Contact KLT at 207-377-2848

Are You Ready to Harvest? Organized by The Maine Forest Service and the Winthrop Conservation Commission. Find out if you are prepared for a successful timber harvest on your property. 7:00 p.m. October 25, Winthrop Town Hall. RSVP to Morten Moesswilde, 207-441-2895.

Wildlife Tour in Winthrop Woods – Organized by the Small Woodland Owners Association of Maine (SWOAM). Tour the 350-acre Georgia Fuller Wiesendanger Wildlife Preserve and learn about how the recent harvest enhances wildlife habitat. 9:00 a.m. October 13, Case Road (across from Oatway Lane), Winthrop. Contact: SWOAM, info@swoam.org; 207-626-0005.

Hammond Property Dedication – Organized by the Small Woodlands Owners Association of Maine (SWOAM). Tour the 82-acre property after a brief ceremony to recognize the gift made by Genie Hammond in honor of her husband, Ray. 1:00-3:00 p.m. October 20, Belgrade. Contact: SWOAM, info@swoam.org; 207-626-0005.

Kennebec Woodland Partnership promotes forest stewardship and conservation, provides educational resources for woodland owners, and supports sustainable natural resource-based economies.

www.maineforestservice.gov/kennebecwoodlands