

INTEGRATED PEST MANAGEMENT

Kindergarten & Grade 1 Curriculum

Pest or Guest Bingo Cards

Blank inside cover card

Pest or Guest?

CARPENTER ANTS

...large black insects that nest
in wood.

Image: copyright Orkin Pest Control Company, Inc. Used with permission

Pest or Guest?

SPIDERS

...eat aphids and insects.
They have 8 legs.

Image: Ronald F. Billings, Texas Forest Service – www.insectimages.org Used with permission

University of Connecticut Integrated Pest Management

Pest or Guest?

Image: Clemson University USDA Cooperative Extension Slide Series - www.insectimages.org
Used with permission

COCKROACHES

...eat almost anything;
They like the dark,
and it is hard to get rid of them.

University of Connecticut Integrated Pest Management

Pest or Guest?

Image: Clemson University USDA Cooperative Extension Slide Series- www.insectimages.org
Used with permission

HOUSEFLIES

...spread germs with their feet.

University of Connecticut Integrated Pest Management

Pest or Guest?

BUTTERFLIES

...They are beautiful insects
that drink nectar.

Image: Marilyn S. Chase University of Connecticut College of Agriculture.
Used with permission

University of Connecticut Integrated Pest Management

Pest or Guest?

Image: copyright Orkin Pest Control Company, Inc.
Used with permission

WASPS

...They sting, but also kill harmful insects.

University of Connecticut Integrated Pest Management

Image: IPM Structural Pests Slide Set Used with permission

HONEYBEES

...They may sting, but they also make food that humans eat.

Pest or Guest?

APHIDS

...They harm plants by sucking sap.

Image: Clemson University USDA Cooperative Extension Slide Series- www.insectimages.org
Used with permission

University of Connecticut Integrated Pest Management

MOSQUITOES

...give itchy bites.
Bats eat them.

Pest or Guest?

MOTHS

...eat holes in wool and fur clothing.
They are attracted to light.

Image: Clemson University – USDA Cooperative Extension Slide Series – www.insectimages.org
Used with permission

University of Connecticut Integrated Pest Management

Pest or Guest?

FRUITFLIES

...tiny, flying insects that breed in fruits and vegetables.

Image: Scott Bauer, USDA ARS- www.insectimages.org Used with permission

University of Connecticut Integrated Pest Management

Image: Robert L. Anderson, USDA Forest Service - www.insectimages.org Used with permission

BUTTERFLIES

...They are beautiful insects
that drink nectar.

