

JESSE DEVINE BIOGRAPHY

Jesse Devine was appointed as Administrator of the Office of Securities in August 2023. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the North American Securities Administrators Association (NASAA).

Before his appointment as Administrator, Mr. Devine served for more than a decade as an Assistant Attorney General in the Investor Protection Bureau of the New York State Office of the Attorney General. In that role he investigated and litigated complex securities fraud cases involving residential mortgage-backed securities, private equity funds, cryptocurrencies and other digital assets. Earlier in his career, Administrator Devine was a litigation associate in private practice with Patterson Belknap Webb & Tyler LLP and a law clerk for the Honorable Robert W. Sweet in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York.

Now a resident of Brunswick, Administrator Devine spent childhood summers camping on Friendship Long Island in Muscongus Bay.

Administrator Devine is a graduate of Wesleyan University and New York University School of Law.
